SEASON OF LENT

The season of Lent is a preparation for the celebration of Easter. The liturgy prepares the Catechumens for the celebration of the paschal mystery by the various stages of Christian initiation: it also prepares the faithful, who recall their baptism and do penance in preparation for Easter (LY. 27).

For Liturgy of Hours for Lent, appropriate Volume is to be taken up.

The Season of Lent :

1. The weekdays of Lent from Ash Wednesday to the Saturday before Palm Sunday take precedence over the memorials of saints, which therefore may be celebrated only in the particular form laid down by the liturgical books (IH. 237-239; M. 355a: See this Ordo pg no. xxxiii - xxxiv no.10)
2. Only, when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires it, may an appropriate Mass for various needs and occasions be celebrated (IM. 374).
Votive Masses and daily Masses for the Dead are prohibited (IM 381).
3. The Alleluia is always omitted, both in the Liturgy of the Hours and in the celebration of the Eucharist,
4. The Te Deum and the Glory to God in the Highest are said or sung on solemnities, on feasts and in particular celebrations.

Weekdays of Easter time from Monday after the Octave of Easter Sunday upto Saturday before Pentecost inclusive.

Weekdays of Ordinary Time

In case of accidental occurrence of several celebrations, a solemnity, impeded by a liturgical day of higher rank, is transferred to the nearest day which is not among those mentioned under 1-8 of the table of precedence. Other celebrations so impeded are omitted. When the vespers of a liturgical day concur with the first Vespers of the following liturgical day, the Vespers of the celebration which is of a higher rank, according to the table of precedence are to be preferred. When both the celebrations are of the same rank, the Vespers of the current day are to be preferred.

For the Commemoration of the mystery of the day the Missal foresees the blessing of Candles with a procession with a solemn entry.

The faithful should gather in a lesser church or in another suitable place outside the Church to which the procession is directed. They hold in their hands candles which they light at the beginning of the rite.

At the blessing of candles and in the procession, the priest may wear a white chasuble or a white cope.

As the procession enters the Church, the entrance song is sung, after which, omitting the usual opening rites, the Gloria is sung immediately and the Collect of the day follows. The Mass then proceeds in the usual way.

1. The Mass of Easter Day should be celebrated with great solemnity. At this Mass, in place of the opening penitential rites, all are sprinkled with water blessed on Easter Night, to recall their baptism.
2. The Easter candle, which should be placed near the ambo or near the altar, and kept there for the whole Easter season until the end of Pentecost Sunday. It should be lit for the more solemn liturgical celebrations, namely Mass, Lauds and Vespers, during this time.
3. Where it is still the practice, the custom of celebrating baptismal Vespers on Easter Sunday should be diligently maintained, and where it is not the practice it should (where possible) be introduced. At this celebration of Vespers psalms are sung and there is a procession to the font (IH. 213).

Today, and throughout the whole Octave, Sunday Compline (as after either First or Second Vespers), is with the antiphon This is the day... instead of the short responsory.

HOLY WEEK

- In the Holy Week the Church celebrates the mysteries of salvation accomplished by Christ in the last days of his earthly life, from his messianic entry into Jerusalem, until his blessed Passion and glorious Resurrection. Lent continues until Maundy Thursday. With the evening Mass of the Lord's Supper on Maundy Thursday begins the Easter Triduum, which includes Good Friday of the Lord's Passion and Holy Saturday - centered upon the Easter Vigil, and concluded with vespers on Easter Sunday of the Lord's Resurrection.

The weekdays of this week are dedicated to the celebration of penance, abstaining from celebration of the sacraments of baptism and confirmation, since these have their natural place in the Easter Vigil.

- The rites of Holy Week, that is to say the blessing and procession of palms, the reposition of the Blessed Sacrament after the Mass of the Lord's Supper, the Solemn Celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday and the Easter Vigil, may be celebrated in all churches and chapels.

In churches other than parish churches, and in chapels, it is best that these rites be celebrated only if this can be done worthily - that is to say, with an appropriate number of ministers, with the possibility of singing at least some parts of the liturgy, and with a sufficiently large congregation of the faithful. Otherwise, it is best that these liturgies be celebrated only in parish churches and in other more important churches.

- It is fitting that the fullness of the Eucharistic signs be attained in the Easter Vigil by means of communion under both kinds. It pertains to the local Ordinaries to consider the suitability and the circumstances of such a concession, and to lay down appropriate norms.

- The Mass of the Vigil is the Easter Mass of the Lord's Resurrection. Any priest celebrating or concelebrating the Vigil Mass in the night may celebrate or concelebrate a second Easter Mass the next morning.

THE EASTER SEASON

The fifty days from Easter Sunday of the Lord's Resurrection until Pentecost Sunday are celebrated in joy and exultation as one single feast day, as "Great Sunday", (magna dominica). It is on these days in particular that the Alleluia is sung (LY. 22).

11. The Baptismal liturgy of the Easter Vigil reaches its fullest form when the baptism of adults, or at least of children, is celebrated. However, even when the sacrament of baptism is not celebrated, in parish churches the baptismal water should be blessed. In cases where there are neither baptisms nor blessing of the font, the sacrament of baptism should be recalled by the blessing of water, with which the faithful are then sprinkled after having renewed their baptismal promises.

12. For the proclamation of the Gospel reading at Mass, incense may be used, but lights are not carried.

The Pastors should take care to instruct the faithful on the meaning and structure of the rites enacted in these days, and so lead them to an active and fruitful celebration.

PALMSUNDAY

1. Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion, a day on which the Church enters upon the mystery of the Death, Burial and Resurrection of her Lord, brings together the triumphal procession of Christ as King and the proclamation of his Passion. Both aspects of the paschal mystery should be explained in the catechesis of the day.
2. The Lord's entry into Jerusalem is commemorated by means of a solemn procession. There should be only one such procession, to be celebrated before Mass on either the Saturday evening or on the Sunday itself. The people should gather in a lesser church or in another suitable place outside the church to which the procession is directed. The faithful take part in the procession singing and waving branches of the palm tree or other trees in their hands. The priest and his ministers do the same. The branches are blessed by him so that they may be carried in procession, and that they may be devoutly kept in the home so as to call to mind the victory of Christ as celebrated by today's procession.

3. To commemorate the Lord's entry into Jerusalem, apart from the procession, the Missal proposes a solemn entry, to be enacted wherever it is not possible to hold a procession outside the church. This solemn entry is to take place before the main Mass, with the faculty of repeating it before another Mass which is habitually celebrated with a large gathering of the people. The Missal also proposes a simple entry, to be enacted at other Masses.
4. The vestments used today are Red. In the procession the priest may wear either the cope or the chasuble.
5. After the procession or the solemn entry, the sign of the cross and the penitential rite or the sprinkling of the congregation with holy water are all omitted from the beginning of Mass and the prayer of the assembly follows immediately. The Mass then proceeds in the usual way.
6. For the spiritual good of the faithful it is appropriate that the narrative of the passion be read in its entirety, without however omitting the other readings which precede it. After the reading of the passion, there should be a homily, even if only a brief one.
7. The narrative of the Lord's Passion is read without candles, incense, initial greeting or marking of the book with the sign of the cross. It is read by the deacon, or in his absence, by a priest. It may be read even by lay readers, the part of Christ being reserved if possible to the priest. Deacon, but not others, recite the prayer Almighty God, cleanse my heart.... and ask a blessing from the priest, as is usually done before the Gospel. At the end is said the Gospel of the Lord, but the book is not kissed.
8. Where it is not possible to celebrate Mass, there should be held a liturgy of the Word about the Lord's messianic entry and his Passion, either on the Saturday evening or at a suitable time on the Sunday.

7. As regards the blessing of the fire, in so far as possible a large fire should be prepared outside the church; such that its flames may truly scatter the darkness and light up the night.
8. The Easter candle, for effective symbolism, should be made of wax, of one piece, and of a considerable size, and be renewed every year. For it must represent the figure of Christ who as the True Light, illuminates the whole world. The candle should be blessed with the words and gestures laid down by the liturgical books or which have been prescribed by the Episcopal Conference.
9. The Easter Proclamation or Exultet may be sung, in case of necessity, even by a cantor who is not a deacon, but in this event the cantor does not receive a blessing from the celebrant, and the second part of the invitation is omitted (My dearest friends, standing with me. ...) as is the greeting The Lord be with you. It is possible to sing either the longer or the shorter form.
10. At least three readings are to be proclaimed from the Old Testament, and even in urgent circumstances at least two. The reading from the Book of Exodus is never to be omitted. The series of readings for the Vigil is as follows :

taken place, but on the other hand the Vigil is not of obligation even when the same have been celebrated in a place. But the celebration of the Vigil is, however, compulsory where there is a baptismal font.

5. Throughout the whole Vigil liturgy, as also at the Mass, the sacred ministers should wear white vestments.

6. Tonight's vigil should be so arranged that after the brief Liturgy of Light or lucernarium (which is the first part of the Vigil), the Church meditates on the marvels the Lord God wrought for his people from the very beginning and strengthens by his Word and his promise (the second part of the Vigil, or Liturgy of the Word), until the moment when with the approaching Day of the Resurrection, together with her new members reborn in baptism (third part), she is called to the table which the Lord spread out for his people by means of his Death and Resurrection (Fourth part).

The whole Easter Vigil proceeds by means of symbols and rites which call for a certain grandeur and dignity, in order that the faithful may grasp their meaning, prompted even by the words of the commentaries, invitations and prayers. It is fitting in particular that the faithful be introduced by means of a brief introduction to the understanding of the typological meaning of the Old Testament readings proclaimed during the Vigil,

Advent from 17 to 24 December

1. The weekdays of Advent from 17 to 24 December take precedence over the memorials of Saints, which may therefore be celebrated only in the particular form laid down by the liturgical books (IH. 237-239; JM. 355a, sec in this Ordo pp xxxiii-xxxiv, no. 10).

2. Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires, it may be appropriate that a Mass for various needs and occasions be celebrated (IM. 374).

Votive Masses and daily Masses for the Dead are prohibited (IM.381).

3. In the Liturgy of Hours :

a) The Invitatory antiphon, the Hymns for the Office of Readings, for Lauds and for Vespers, are taken from those prescribed for the season.

b) Proper antiphons are assigned for the weekday psalms at Lauds and Vespers.

4. In Eucharistic celebrations likewise proper readings are given for the days from 17 to 24 December, and these should be used instead of those indicated for the weekdays of the third week of Advent.

1. By a most ancient tradition, this night is dedicated to the Lord, and the Vigil celebrated during it, commemorating that holy night when the Lord rose from the dead is regarded as the "Mother of all holy vigils." For in this night the Church awaits in vigil the Resurrection of the Lord, and celebrates it with the sacraments of Christian initiation. The Christian tradition has however always recognized its character of expectation of the Lord's eschatological coming.
2. The whole celebration of the Easter Vigil should take place by night, in such a way that it does not begin before the onset of night and concludes by first light on the Sunday. The practice of celebrating the Easter Vigil on the Saturday evening at the time when the Sunday Vigil Masses are habitually celebrated is to be censured. The whole of the celebration is, moreover, so to be arranged that its nature as a protracted Vigil is safeguarded.
3. The celebration of a Mass without the rites of the Easter Vigil is not allowed.
4. The Easter Vigil may be celebrated even in churches and oratories where the liturgies of Maundy Thursday and Good Friday have not

1. On Holy Saturday the Church waits at the Lord's tomb, meditating upon his passion, death and descent into Hell, awaiting in prayer and fasting for his Resurrection.
2. If it is not to celebrate the Office of Readings and Lauds with the people's participation, there should be a celebration of the Word of God or some devotional exercise appropriate to today's mystery, especially one that honours the Blessed Virgin Mary for her sharing in Passion of her Son.
3. An image of Christ Crucified or laid in the tomb may be set up in the Church for the veneration of the faithful, or else a portrayal of his descent into Hell, such as casts light upon the mystery commemorated on Holy Saturday, or an image of Our Lady of Sorrows.
4. Today the Church abstains completely from the celebration of the Eucharist. Holy Communion may only be given in the form of Viaticum. There should be no celebration of Matrimony nor of the other sacraments, except for Penance and the Anointing of the Sick.
5. The faithful should be instructed concerning the special character of the day. Festive practices linked to the former anticipated celebration of Easter on Holy Saturday should be restricted to Easter Night and Easter Sunday itself.

SEASON OF CHRISTMAS

After the annual celebration of the Paschal Mystery, there is no more ancient Feast day for the Church than the recalling of the memory of the Nativity of the Lord and of the mysteries of his first appearing. This is the object of the Christmas season (LY. 32).

Vigil of the Nativity of the Lord

At all masses on the vigil and Christmas day at the words of the Creed; "And the word was made flesh" all kneel briefly (IM. 137)

THE EASTER TRIDUUM

Christ accomplished the work of redemption and the perfect glorification of God principally through his paschal mystery, in which dying he destroyed our death and rising he restored our life. Hence the sacred Easter Triduum of the Lord's Passion and Resurrection shines forth as the culmination of the whole liturgical year (LY. 18).

1. By the celebration of the Easter Triduum, that is, of the Death, Burial and Resurrection of her Spouse, the Church means to make present and to fulfill the mystery of the Passover, the passing over of the Lord from this world to the Father.
 In accordance with the tradition of the Church, the sacred Easter fast should be celebrated on Good Friday of the Lord's Passion and even, if suitable, extended to Holy Saturday, so that the joys of the Lord's Resurrection may be arrived at with alert and open mind (Sc. 110).
2. The celebration of the sacred Triduum should be held only where they may be enacted with dignity and decorum (see above, p. 49 no. 2). It is appropriate, therefore, that small religious communities come together in more important churches, so as to foster participation of the faithful. Likewise the faithful from a number of lesser parishes in the care of a single priest should, if possible, gather in the main church of the area to take part in the sacred rites.

Where, however, two or more parishes are entrusted to the care of a single parish priest, each parish having a considerable congregation of faithful and the possibility of performing the celebrations with dignity and solemnity, the parish priest has the faculty to repeat the celebrations of the Easter Triduum, with due regard for other norms.

3. It is highly recommended that there be a celebration in common of the Office of Readings and of Lauds on Good Friday and Holy Saturday, so that the Christian Community may meditate more efficaciously and more fully upon the Passion, in expectation of the proclamation of the Resurrection.

Great significance is there also for popular devotional exercises that are of pastoral importance, such as the Stations of the Cross, processions of the Lord's Passion, the commemoration of the Sorrows of Our Lady. 4. The celebration of the Lord's Passion is to take place in the afternoon, round about 3 p.m. If, however, genuine pastoral reasons require it, the celebration may take place at a more suitable time, but not before noon and not after 9 p.m.
5. The whole liturgy should be conducted according to the prescriptions of the liturgical books. No one should introduce any changes on his own initiative.

For reasons of appropriate symbolism, there should be a single cross for adoration but care should be taken that the individual faithful are able to adore the cross, a feature of great importance in today's celebration. The rite by which the cross is adored in silence by the whole congregation as a body should be used only if the faithful are present in very large numbers.
9. After the celebration of the Lord's Passion, the Blessed Sacrament should be carried back in a simple way to the place of reservation and kept there with the usual lamp burning. 1. The Chrism Mass, which the bishop celebrates with his presbyterium, and at which the oils are blessed, manifests the communion of the priests with their bishop. For at this Mass priests gather and concelebrate, coming from different parts of the diocese, as witnesses at the confection of the chrism and as fellow workers of their bishop, in whose sacred ministry for the building up, sanctification and government of the people of God they participate. Thus is manifest in a clear way the unity of the priesthood and sacrifice of Christ living on in the Church.

The faithful, too, should regularly take part and receive the Eucharist at this Mass.

GOOD FRIDAY OF THE LORD'S PASSION30 Fri Psalt. Prop

R Day of Penance - Abstinence and Fasting
The Liturgy of the Hours is celebrated with the special features indicated in the Proper of Time. It is highly appropriate that office of Readings and Lauds be celebrated in solemn fashion with the people (IH. 210).

The celebration of the Lord's Passion (as in the Missal)

Readings : 1R Is. 52:13-53:12

Ps. 31:2, 6, 12-13, 15-17, 25

2R. Heb. 4:14-16, 5:7-9 (4:14-5:1)

Gosp. Jn. 18:1-19:42 (Passions Reading)

1. On this day, when Christ our paschal Lamb was sacrificed, the Church contemplates and adores the Cross of her Lord and Spouse, commemorating her own coming forth from the side of Christ as he slept on the Cross, and interceding for the salvation of all the world.

2. According to a most ancient tradition, the Church does not celebrate the Eucharist on this day. Holy Communion is distributed to the faithful solely during the celebration of the Lord's Passion. It may, however, be given at any time to sick persons who are unable to take part in this liturgy.

3. There should be no celebration of the Sacraments today, with the exception of the Sacraments of Penance and Anointing of the Sick. "Funerals should be conducted without singing and without organ music or the ringing of bells.

3. In the weekday Office, the Invitatory antiphon, the Hymns for the Office of Readings, for Lauds and for Vespers, and the antiphon at the Middle Hour are taken from those prescribed for the season, before or after the Epiphany as the case may be.

11. The faithful should be reminded to spend a suitable length of time during the night, according to circumstances of time and place, in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament reserved, in such a way, however, that after midnight the adoration takes place without solemnity.
12. The procession and the reposition of the Blessed Sacrament should not take place in churches where it is not intended to celebrate the solemn Liturgy of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday.

2 Ves of Maundy Thursday; C as after 2 Ves of Sunday

➤ Today's collections are towards the maintenance of the Holy See (Can, 1271)

N.B. Vespers are not recited by those who take part in the evening Mass.

Good Friday of the Lord's Passion is a day of penance for the whole Church, to be marked by fasting and abstinence from meat.

APPENDIX

On 26th June 1985, the Congregation of Divine Worship approved the Calender Proper to the Congregation of M. S. F. S., Consisting of:

- 24th January, Solemnity of St. Francis de Sales, Patron of the Congregation.
- 15th September, Solemnity of Our Lady of Sorrows, Patroness of the Congregation.

PRINCIPAL CELEBRATIONS OF THE LITURGICAL YEAR 2018

First Sunday of Advent	December 3, 2017
Ash Wednesday	February 14, 2018
Easter Sunday	April 1, 2018
The Ascension of the Lord	May 10, 2018
Pentecost Sunday	May 20, 2018
The most Holy Body and	June, 3, 2018
Blood of Christ First Sunday of Advent	December, 2 2018

- With this Mass, celebrated in the evening of Maundy Thursday, the Church inaugurates the sacred Easter Triduum, aims at recalling that last supper, when the Lord Jesus, on the night he was betrayed, loving those who were his own in the world until the very end, offered his Body and Blood under the species of bread and wine to God and under these symbols, gave them to his Apostles that they might consume them, and ordered them and their successors in the priesthood to offer them.

By means especially of the homily, attention should be focused upon the mysteries which are commemorated in this Mass, namely the institution of the Eucharist and that of the priestly Order, together with the Lord's command of brotherly love.

- The Mass of the Lord's Supper is to be celebrated in the evening, at the most appropriate hour, with the full participation of the whole local community.

Priests who have already concelebrated at the Chrism Mass, or who are obliged to celebrate another Mass for the faithful, may also concelebrate at the Mass of the Lord's Supper. In accordance with a most ancient tradition of the Church, the celebration of Mass without a congregation is not permitted today.

CYCLE – LECTIONARY FOR MASS

Sunday Cycle	YEAR B	December 2, 2017 to November 25, 2018
Weekdays Cycle	YEAR II	January 9, 2018 to February 13, 2018 May 21, 2018 to December 1, 2018
Sunday Cycle	YEAR C	December 2, 2018 to November 2, 2018

LITURGY OF THE HOURS

Dec. 3, 2017 to Jan. 8, 2018	Advent, Christmas	Vol. I
Jan. 9th to Feb. 13, 2018	Weeks 1 to 6, Ordinary Time	Vol. III
Feb. 14th to May 20, 2018	Lent, Triduum, Easter	Vol. II
May 21st to Aug. 4, 2018	Weeks 7 to 17, Ordinary Time	Vol. III
Aug. 5th to Dec. 1, 2018	Weeks 18 to 34, Ordinary Time	Vol. IV
Dec. 2, 2018 to Jan. 13, 2019	Advent, Christmas	Vol. I

- Where pastoral reasons urge it, the local Ordinary may permit another Mass to be celebrated in churches and chapels in the evening and even, in case of real need, in the morning, but in this latter case only for the sake of those faithful who cannot in any way take part at the evening Mass. Care should be taken not to undertake any kind of devotion to the advantage of private individuals, lest it prejudices the evening Mass.
- The Tabernacle should be empty. Hosts should be consecrated at the Mass for the communion of the clergy and people today and tomorrow.
- It is fitting that for the reservation of the Eucharist to serve for communion tomorrow, a chapel should be arranged in which prayer and meditation may be fostered, but it is also highly recommended that all be marked by that austerity which is appropriate to these days.
If the Blessed Sacrament is normally reserved in a chapel separate from the central nave of the church, the place of reposition and of adoration may suitably be set up there. The Blessed Sacrament should be reserved, however, in a closed tabernacle, exposition in a monstrance being absolutely excluded. Nor should the tabernacle in any way have the appearance of a tomb, and the term “tomb” or “sepulcher” should be avoided, since the chapel of reservation is not intended to represent the Lord’s tomb, but only to reserve the Blessed Sacrament for communion the next day.

Weekdays of the Christmas Season

- On weekdays of the Christmas season from 2 January onwards on which an optional memorial is observed, it is possible to choose either the Office and Mass of the weekday, or the Office and Mass of the Saint who is inscribed for that day in the calendar or in the Martyrology (IH. 244, IM. 355b)
- Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires it, may an appropriate Mass for various needs and intentions or a votive Mass be celebrated (IM. 376). Daily Masses for the Dead are not permitted (IM. 381).

- While the Glory to God in the highest....is being sung, the bells are rung. From the end of this hymn the bells are then silent until the Easter Vigil, unless the Episcopal Conference or the Bishop of the diocese for appropriate reasons decide otherwise.
- The washing of feet, which according to the tradition for this day is done for a select number of men, shows forth the service and the love of Christ, who came not to be served but to serve. It is appropriate that this tradition be maintained and its true meaning be explained.
- In the procession bearing the gifts it is fitting that there be included the gifts destined for the poor, especially gifts which have been collected during Lent as the fruits of penance. While this happens the hymn “where charity and love...” is sung.
- At the end of the prayer after communion, the procession makes its way through the church with incense and candles, bearing the Eucharist to the chapel of reservation.
- At the end of today’s celebration, the altar is privately stripped and if possible all crosses are taken away from the church. It is appropriate that any crosses remaining in the church be veiled, if they have not already been veiled by decision of the Episcopal Conference.

PENTECOST: The fifty days of the Sacred season of Easter conclude with Pentecost Sunday, when the Church recalls the gift of the Holy Spirit to the Apostles, the beginnings of the Church and the start of her mission to all tongues and peoples and nations.

It is fitting that the Vigil Mass of Pentecost be celebrated in a more ample form, using readings and prayers to be found in the liturgical books. This Mass, however, does not have a baptismal character, as does the Easter Vigil, but instead is a celebration of more intense prayer, after the example of the apostles and the disciples, who together with Mary the Mother of Jesus were one in persevering prayer, as they awaited the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Advent from 17 to 24 December

- The weekdays of Advent from 17 to 24 December take precedence over the memorials of Saints, which may therefore be celebrated only in the particular form laid down by the liturgical books (IH. 237-239; JM. 355a, sec in this Ordo pp xxxiii - xxxiv, no. 10).
- Only when some genuine need or pastoral advantage requires, it may be appropriate that a Mass for various needs and occasions be celebrated (IM. 374).

Votive Masses and daily Masses for the Dead are prohibited (IM.381).
- In the Liturgy of Hours :
 - The Invitatory antiphon, the Hymns for the Office of Readings, for Lauds and for Vespers, are taken from those prescribed for the season.
 - Proper antiphons are assigned for the weekday psalms at Lauds and Vespers.
- In Eucharistic celebrations likewise proper readings are given for the days from 17 to 24 December, and these should be used instead of those indicated for the weekdays of the third week of Advent.

Birthday: Manackaparampil Sinto

After Pentecost Sunday the Easter candle is kept with honour in the Baptistry, so that from its flame the candles of the baptized may be lit during their baptism. At funerals the Easter candle should be placed near the bier, to signify that Christian death is a true Passover.

Outside the Easter season, the Easter candle should not be kept in the sanctuary nor should it be lit.

From tomorrow the recitation of the "Angel of the Lord" Resumes.

Ordinary TimeAfter the Easter Season

The weeks of Ordinary Time celebrate no particular aspect of the mystery of Christ. Instead, especially on the last Sundays, the mystery of Christ in all its fullness is celebrated (LY. 43).

Ordinary Time resumes from the 9th Week. The appropriate Vol. of the Liturgy of the Hours is taken up. At Mass, Readings from Lectionary on Sundays is of Cycle B and Weekday is that of Year II.

Month of November is specially dedicated for the souls in purgatory. All the faithful who visit a cemetery & at least mentally pray for the souls in purgatory during the first eight days of this month may gain plenary indulgence applicable only to the souls in purgatory.

A plenary Indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, is granted to any of the faithful who 1) on one of the days from 1 to 8 November visit devoutly a cemetery or who simply pray mentally for the Dead;

2) on All Souls Day (or else with the permission of the Ordinary, on the Sunday that precedes or follows, or else on All Saints' Day) visit a church or chapel with devotion and there recite the Our Father and the Creed.

A partial indulgence, applicable only to the souls in Purgatory, is granted to any of the faithful who 1) visit devoutly a cemetery or who simply pray mentally for the dead; 2) recite devoutly Lauds or Vespers of the Office of the Dead, or the invocation Eternal rest grant.(Enchiridion of Indulgences, edition of 1999, concession 29).

Even when 2 Nov. falls on a Sunday, the Mass celebrated is that of the commemoration of all the faithful Departed [New Roman Missal Pg. 860] In virtue of the Apostolic Constitution of Pope Benedict XV of 10 August 1915, all priests are permitted to celebrate three Masses today, provided these take place at different times and on condition, moreover, that while they may at their preference apply one of the Masses in favour of any person and accept for that Mass a stipend, they may not accept a stipend for the second or for the third Mass, the second of which they are bound to apply respectively for all the faithful departed and the third for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff, (IM 204d) No other celebrations are permitted.
